

Special PHSNE Program, Sunday, August 9, 2020, 7:30 P.M.

Join Us for a Virtual Presentation by Stacy Waldman

The Vernacular World According to House of Mirth Photos

Invitations to join the meeting will be emailed later and posted on phsne.org

After COVID forced cancellations of recent PHSNE events, a special online meeting will take place on August 9th. It offers a unique opportunity for members residing outside the New England area to attend a program on a topic of interest to photo historians.

Stacy Waldman, House of Mirth Photos, is a dealer and collector of vintage and found vernacular photography. She specializes in 20th century photo albums, snapshots, and ephemera. Photos that she has discovered have been included in numerous exhibitions and publications throughout the world, including the popular book Miss Peregrine's Home for Peculiar Children.

Charlie Chaplin wanna-be

Stacy Waldman holding Kodachrome snapshot; tintype

Waldman's virtual presentation will showcase 20th century snapshots and photo albums from her collection, featuring topics that are popular now such as photos of people with cameras, television sets, color snapshots, etc.

Waldman can be found at photography, ephemera, and book shows throughout the country and abroad, and at her showroom, Spot 142 in Easthampton, MA, which is open by appointment. You can also find her online at www.houseofmirthphotos.com, on eBay as HouseofMirth, and on Instagram and Facebook as Houseofmirthphotos.